Kīngitanga Day

Thursday 8 September 2016

The University of Waikato and Kīngitanga

Since its founding in 1964, the University of Waikato has had strong connections with the Kīngitanga, Waikato-Tainui and many other iwi across the country.

This is particularly evident through our efforts with Te Rōpū Manukura, the high-level committee of iwi representatives that forms part of the University's governance and which ensures we work with iwi to meet the tertiary needs and aspirations of Māori communities.

Through Kīngitanga Day, these relationships are honoured. Every year the calibre of speakers is testament to the growing importance and recognition of Kīngitanga Day, locally and nationally. Interest around this University event grows each year and serves as a platform for building relationships with key individuals in the Māori sphere.

Kīngitanga Day is an opportunity for wider community engagement, and as a University that celebrates Māori distinctiveness, we hope to share our cultural uniqueness with the public.

Kīngitanga Day

Kīngitanga Day celebrates the University's distinctive identity, heritage and relationships.

A showcase of events through a University-wide programme of presentations, panels, workshops, performances and activities.

Nau mai, haere mai, te tini me te mano!
