Making Headlines

Ewe've got to be joking

From  Northern Advocate
Published  19:38 18/12/2014

Northern Advocate editor Craig Cooper was in Hamilton last week watching a Northland Primary Schools representative match when a sheep - with a sheep dog in hot pursuit - ran through the middle of the game being played at the University of Waikato.

Newsletter: The Read: Thursday, 18 December 2014

From  Booksellers New Zealand
Published  15:34 18/12/2014

Mandy Hager is Waikato University’s 2015 Writer in Residence ... Mandy Hager, Waikato University’s 2015 writer in residence, will be writing a new novel focussing on a 12th century love affair.

Margaret Noble: Community remains at heart

From  Rotorua Daily Post
Published  06:17 18/12/2014

The growing range of our provision means that Waiariki has played an increasingly important part in supporting the development of a vibrant and strong economy and society for Rotorua and the wider region through the Bay of Plenty Tertiary Education Partnership, representing Waiariki Institute of Technology, The University of Waikato, Bay of Plenty Polytechnic and Te Whare Wananga o Awanuiarangi looking at tertiary needs in the region.

Waikato uni student take to the beach to recruit

From  Waikato Times
Published  10:09 18/12/2014

Swingball and bean bags will be vital study tools for a trio of students pitching Waikato University to their peers on the beaches of Coromandel this summer.

Scholarship awarded to study fuel poverty in NZ

From  Hazel Dobbie, Universities New Zealand
Published  09:00 18/12/2014

A Maldivian citizen, she also has a Master’s in Organisational Psychology from the University of Waterloo in Canada, and a Bachelor’s in Psychology and Human Resource Management from the University of Waikato.

AUDIO: Worldwide condemnation after Pakistan school shooting

From  Radio Live Audio, Radio Live
Published  23:00 17/12/2014

Andrew Patterson talks with Al Gillespie, International law expert at the University of Waikato, on the horrible story of the massacre of at least 132 students at a school in Pakistan.
Al Gillespie: Pesawar Attack
From Newstalk ZB Audio and Video, Newstalk ZB
Published 18:29 17/12/2014
Waikato University law professor Al Gillespie talks to Larry Williams about the attack in Pakistan in which 141 have died at the hands of the Taliban, and December being a bad month for terrorist attacks.

Massey and Waikato academics win Asia NZ Foundation funding
From Rebecca Palmer, Asia New Zealand Foundation
Published 14:12 17/12/2014
Associate Professor Adrian Athique, Chair of Arts at the University of Waikato, has won funding for his project "Projecting Soft Power in Southeast Asia: A reception study of Indian media exports".

Student’s scholarship boost
From Rotorua Daily Post
Published 18:04 16/12/2014
A Te Arawa university student has been awarded a $12,000 scholarship with the University of Waikato.

Latest Devine novel set in Sounds
From Marlborough Express
Published 10:12 16/12/2014
After studying at Waikato University, Thomas Devine, who prefers to use his second name Wayne, spent most of his working life in public law.

Hawkes Bay scholar set to tackle the commercial world
From All About Hawkes Bay
Published 14:47 16/12/2014
"I think a rewarding career and a career that leaves a legacy is the essential goal for my future, and I know the University of Waikato can help me achieve that.” ... The former Lindisfarne College student will start a Bachelor of Business Analysis at the University of Waikato next year, and says the University of Waikato was a clear and easy choice. ... “The Management School at the University of Waikato is by far the best in New Zealand.

Hager named Waikato University’s 2015 writer in residence
From National Business Review (NBR)
Published 08:53 16/12/2014
However, in exchange for the emolument of $48,500 - jointly funded by the Waikato University and Creative New Zealand - the writer in residence is expected to "participate in the cultural life" of the tertiary institution and required to reside in Hamilton for the tenure of the award.

Talented scholar blends music with science
From Waikato Times
Published 23:32 15/12/2014
The 2014 Dux of Sacred Heart Girls' College in Hamilton, Fernandez-Ritchie is one of 10 school-leavers from around New Zealand to have been awarded a University of Waikato Golden Jubilee Scholarship, giving her $10,000 a year for up to four years of study.
Captain in glory years eyes another Hawke Cup win

From: Northern Advocate
Published: 12:14 15/12/2014

Hood amassed 86 appearances for Northland between 1991 and 2012 and would have clocked the ton but for three years away at Waikato University, where he played 24 matches for Hamilton.

Student project sets bar high

From: Rotorua Daily Post
Published: 09:35 15/12/2014

Local and national service bodies also supported the programme, including the New Zealand Qualifications Authority, Careers New Zealand, Waikari Institute of Technology, University of Waikato, New Zealand Police, Navy, and the Ministry of Education.

Newsletter: ShareTrader AM Update for Monday 15 December 2014

From: Sharetrader
Published: 07:15 15/12/2014

The newly-appointed vice-chancellor of the University of Waikato is due to start his new job early February, heading the organisation of about 1500 staff and more than 12,000 students. Read more »

Ready to take charge of billion-dollar business

From: Taranaki Daily News
Published: 22:03 14/12/2014

The newly-appointed vice-chancellor of the University of Waikato is due to start his new job early February, heading the organisation of about 1500 staff and more than 12,000 students. The University of Waikato is currently on the threshold of becoming a billion-dollar business, according to its latest economic impact report. He has a substantial publication record and an honorary doctorate from the University of Economics in Vietnam, a release from the University of Waikato said.

Ready to take charge of billion-dollar business

From: Manawatu Standard
Published: 22:03 14/12/2014

The newly-appointed vice-chancellor of the University of Waikato is due to start his new job early February, heading the organisation of about 1500 staff and more than 12,000 students. The University of Waikato is currently on the threshold of becoming a billion-dollar business, according to its latest economic impact report. He has a substantial publication record and an honorary doctorate from the University of Economics in Vietnam, a release from the University of Waikato said.

Ready to take charge of billion-dollar business

From: Stuff.co.nz
Published: 22:03 14/12/2014

The newly-appointed vice-chancellor of the University of Waikato is due to start his new job early February, heading the organisation of about 1500 staff and more than 12,000 students. The University of Waikato is currently on the threshold of becoming a billion-dollar business, according to its latest economic impact report. He has a substantial publication record and an honorary doctorate from the University of Economics in Vietnam, a release from the University of Waikato said.
Ready to take charge of billion-dollar business

From: Waikato Times
Published: 20:53 14/12/2014

The newly-appointed vice-chancellor of the University of Waikato is due to start his new job early February, heading the organisation of about 1500 staff and more than 12,000 students. ... The University of Waikato is currently on the threshold of becoming a billion-dollar business, according to its latest economic impact report. ... He has a substantial publication record and an honorary doctorate from the University of Economics in Vietnam, a release from the University of Waikato said.

Ready to take charge of billion-dollar business

From: Dominion Post
Published: 22:03 14/12/2014

The newly-appointed vice-chancellor of the University of Waikato is due to start his new job early February, heading the organisation of about 1500 staff and more than 12,000 students. ... The University of Waikato is currently on the threshold of becoming a billion-dollar business, according to its latest economic impact report. ... He has a substantial publication record and an honorary doctorate from the University of Economics in Vietnam, a release from the University of Waikato said.

Smart option: Phone with local pedigree

From: Rotorua Daily Post
Published: 08:21 13/12/2014

He told me his brother who had attended Waikato University had persuaded him to immigrate.

How do you teach creativity in physics?

From: SciBlogs.co.nz
Published: 12:59 12/12/2014

At the University of Waikato, we save our second year students the algebra by just talking about the solutions, but then spring it on them in third year.

A ‘snake’ that doesn’t bite: University of Waikato student builds earthquake rescue robot snake

From: Idealog
Published: 11:59 12/12/2014

Trust awards $204,000 to 34 Waikato students

From: Bethany Pawson, HMC Communications
Published: 11:19 12/12/2014

Scholarships worth $6000 each have been awarded to 34 Waikato secondary school students embarking on a science or teaching degree at the University of Waikato or Wintec. ... "In the scholarships’ inaugural year, 20 students each received a $4,000 for their first year of study at the University of Waikato or Wintec.
Book Review: Marketing with Social Media: 10 Easy Steps to Success for Business

From TechDay
Published 10:00 12/12/2014

Dr Linda Hollebeek is a marketing specialist, including in social media marketing, who has lecturing experience with the University of Auckland, AUT University and the University of Waikato.

Maths app research at Papamoa

From SunLive
Published 14:24 11/12/2014

The research is run by Dr Nigel Calder and Dr Carol Murphy - both senior lecturers based at the University of Waikato's Tauranga Faculty of Education.

Federated Farmers: There is no substitute for food

From New Zealand Herald
Published 13:10 11/12/2014

By Professor of Agribusiness, Jacqueline Rowarth, University of Waikato

Waikato DHB celebrates and thanks its volunteers

From Mary Anne Gill, Waikato DHB
Published 13:30 11/12/2014

Waikato University psychology students Jessica Fredicson and Ngareta Wairepo decided to become volunteers to gain some experience while completing their studies.

Students share Maori language journey

From Manawatu Standard
Published 11:13 11/12/2014

Once they're back, Kawana will be off to Waikato University to study psychology, Poutu-Smith is joining the navy and Wipaki-Hawkins has been studying carving at Te Wananga o Aotearoa, while completing NCEA.

New TEI Council members appointed

From Vanessa Rawson , NZ Government, National Party
Published 11:39 11/12/2014

- University of Waikato: appointment of Simon Graafhuis as a member ... University of Waikato ... Mr Graafhuis is an alumni of the University of Waikato.

The Design School to open here

From Gisborne Herald
Published 16:59 10/12/2014

She then graduated from Waikato University with a bachelor degree in te reo and art history in 2012.
Tauranga schools focus of research
From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 14:20 10/12/2014
The research is run by Dr Nigel Calder and Dr Carol Murphy, both Senior Lecturers based at the University of Waikato’s Tauranga Faculty of Education.

Profit and food safety 'top priorities'
From Waikato Times
Published 15:19 09/12/2014
Jacqueline Rowarth, and agribusiness professor at the University of Waikato, said Fonterra has to focus on profit for the benefit of its shareholders.

Paris dances way to success
From Wairarapa Times-Age
Published 07:36 10/12/2014
She said 18 other awards were presented at the ceremony, including a $3000 tertiary award presented to former Rathkeale College student Zepllin Toomer, who was to use the prize to help with his business studies degree at Waikato University next year.

Bar admission honours a father who was so close
From Rotorua Daily Post
Published 16:30 09/12/2014
Miss Lewis began her law degree at Waikato University in 2010, motivated by the untimely death of her father who died in a car accident in 2006. ... Her father, Ratu Lewis, was two papers off completing a law degree from Waikato University.

Profit and food safety 'top priorities'
From Waikato Times
Published 15:19 09/12/2014
Jacqueline Rowarth, and agribusiness professor at the University of Waikato, said Fonterra has to focus on profit for the benefit of its shareholders.

Family reo sparks research interest
From Waatea News
Published 13:31 09/12/2014
A Waikato University master of science student has been awarded a $12,000 Research Institute Scholarship on intergenerational language transmission within Maori families. ... Dewes, who is originally from Rotorua, has a Bachelor of Arts in te reo Maori and tikanga from Waikato University.

A new life carved out
From Hamilton News
Published 11:50 09/12/2014
But Smith said it was after a family tragedy seven years ago that left him wanting to delve deeper into his Maori heritage, moving to Hamilton and enrolling himself in Waikato University to learn to speak Maori.
The natural history of New Zealand’s freshwaters: Series conclusion and reader feedback

From SciBlogs.co.nz
Published 10:59 09/12/2014

The secret lives of freshwater mussels, Kevin Collier, University of Waikato, and Sue Clearwater, NIWA

Niwa ecologists catch on to a bug’s life

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 09:50 09/12/2014

Results were transported back to Niwa's laboratory at the University of Waikato where they would be examined.

A beer lover's paradise in cyberspace

From Waikato Times
Published 09:17 09/12/2014

It was nothing flash - a bit of Lion Red as Parker studied his IT degree at Waikato University.

'Risky' move to reject ransom demands

From Newshub
Published 11:04 08/12/2014

Waikato University’s Andrew Gillespie says the US and UK don’t pay ransoms because it increases the likelihood their citizens will be taken hostage in the first place.

Helping brings joy for top volunteer

From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 08:18 08/12/2014

She had attended training courses to extend her understanding of the complex needs and circumstances of this work, and was studying to be a social worker through Waikato University.

The secret lives of freshwater mussels

From SciBlogs.co.nz
Published 20:33 06/12/2014

Dr Kevin Collier is an Associate Professor at the Environmental Research Institute, University of Waikato.

Cellos and flute face off in a talented grand final

From Gisborne Herald
Published 16:33 06/12/2014

Lucas, who has relocated to New Zealand to study at the University of Waikato, was aged just 16 when he first entered the contest in 2012, when he won the International String Player Award.
A 'perfectly' good debate on the new drink-drive limit

From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 17:35 05/12/2014

"The University of Waikato has done some research showing that people who are above the new limit can't accurately judge their level of intoxication or how well they can drive."

University makes shortlist for ICT grad school

From Anne Beston, University of Auckland
Published 10:46 05/12/2014

A new graduate school in information and communications technologies for the Auckland region is one step closer now that a proposal from the University of Auckland and the University of Waikato has made the shortlist.

World Soil Day - New Zealand's Volcanic Soils

From Radio New Zealand Audio
Published 22:53 04/12/2014

Now, some of the pine forests are being converted back to dairy farms, and Waikato University soil scientist Louis Schipper says it is important to monitor the effects such changes in landuse have on soil properties.

Sustainable cultural tourism focus for doctoral student

From TangataWhenua.com
Published 16:45 04/12/2014

(Waikato University) Research highlighting the significance of sustainable cultural tourism is the objective for University of Waikato PhD candidate Mei Cooper. Mei - from Ngaruawahia - will be doing her bit to achieve that over the next three years as she completes her doctorate at the University of Waikato.

Advisory: What do Kiwis think of science? - experts respond - UPDATED

From Science Media Centre
Published 15:02 04/12/2014

NEW: Monica Peters, participatory science researcher and PhD Candidate, Faculty of Science and Engineering, University of Waikato, comments: ... Dr Alison Campbell, Associate Dean, Teaching and Learning, University of Waikato, comments:

ICT Graduate Schools move one step closer

From Vanessa Rawson , NZ Government, National Party
Published 14:07 04/12/2014

- University of Auckland and University of Waikato ... - Auckland University of Technology

Newsletter: Parliament debates staff seats on councils

From Stephen Day, Tertiary Education Union (TEU)
Published 13:05 04/12/2014

The University of Waikato has appointed a new leader for its 51st year.
Call for more dedicated kapa haka research
From Radio New Zealand
Published 07:23 04/12/2014

Nga Hua a Tane Rore, the Benefits of Kapa Haka, was carried out by Waikato University’s Te Kotahi Research Institute, which interviewed about 50 people involved in the art.

Kapa haka value confirmed
From Waatea News
Published 15:04 03/12/2014

Darrin Apanui from Te Matatini says the report Nga Hua A Tane Rore from Waikato University’s Te Kotahi Research Institute should help with future funding and support.

Value of kapa haka underrated - research
From Creative New Zealand
Published 10:50 03/12/2014

"Undertaken by Te Kotahi Research Institute, Waikato University, the scoping report provides valuable information which our two organisations will work on together with other government agencies to provide the hard evidence of the value add to all New Zealanders from kapa haka," Lewis Holden said.

New plan urges creative facilities for Waikato
From Waikato Times
Published 05:18 03/12/2014

That facility, which would likely be funded by the University of Waikato Foundation, in partnership with other organisations, would be built sometime between 2025 and 2035.

University chooses new leader
From Waikato Times
Published 22:29 02/12/2014

The University of Waikato has appointed a new leader for its 51st year. ... Quigley said he was looking forward to the new role at the University of Waikato, which he saw as an innovative institution combining an international reputation with a commitment to serving the region. ... Quigley was well placed to build on the foundations laid in the university’s first 50 years, University of Waikato Chancellor Jim Bolger said.

Linda Mitchell: Put children's education before shareholders
From New Zealand Herald
Published 06:00 02/12/2014

Linda Mitchell is Associate Professor in early childhood education at the University of Waikato.

Keeping patients safe, theme for Midland quality conference
From Waikato DHB
Published 14:18 01/12/2014

The final speaker was Waikato University associate professor Samuel Charlton who talked about human factors.
Agribiz targets bright kids

From  Dominon Post
Published  08:51 01/12/2014

Waikato University professor of agribusiness Jacqueline Rowarth welcomed the initiative but said it could not be a standalone curriculum.

RAW DATA: Lisa Owen interviews Glenn Inquiry chair Bill Wilson

From  National Business Review (NBR)
Published  09:06 30/11/2014

But the thing is, we’ve talked to Waikato University Senior Lecturer in Community Psychology Neville Robertson.

Composer of the Week - Martin Lodge

From  Radio New Zealand Audio
Published  09:25 30/11/2014

Martin talks about his influences and style, maintaining a freelance career, his research into New Zealand music, composing for and with taonga puoro, and building the University of Waikato Department of Music.

On The Nation: Lisa Owen interviews Bill Wilson

From  MediaWorks
Published  12:36 29/11/2014

But the thing is, we’ve talked to Waikato University Senior Lecturer in Community Psychology Neville Robertson.

Drinking water won't beat new booze limit

From  Dominon Post
Published  23:29 28/11/2014

Recent research by the University of Waikato found cognitive skills such as response times, problem solving, memory and attention were not significantly impaired at 50mg but were substantially impaired at 80mg.

Te Manu Korihi News for 28 November 2014

From  Radio New Zealand Audio
Published  19:25 28/11/2014

A new report into family violence is recommending kaupapa Maori based research centres be set up, to find culturally relevant ways of stopping domestic abuse amongst tangata whenua; The Hamilton-based Te Runanga o Kirikiriroa says it will need to sell most of the 62-homes its planning to build otherwise it won't be able to continue developing more homes for people in need; The Society of Maori Astronomy Research and Traditions says it wants to help whanau, hapu and iwi save money and time by fishing according to the Maori Calendar; Students completing advanced Te Reo papers at Waikato University during the summer is growing in popularity, which a senior lecturer is celebrating.
Cyber criminals go global and Kiwi companies are mostly ill prepared for their siege. Easy tips to keep your company on guard

From: Idealog
Published: 15:27 28/11/2014

Nearly half of the 500 New Zealand businesses surveyed (45%) feel as though they are unprepared to fight cyber threats, according to a survey conducted by the University of Waikato for Vodafone in October.

Glenn Inquiry: Domestic violence 'a disaster'

From: Dominion Post
Published: 10:07 28/11/2014

More staff left the inquiry as did most members of the inquiry's 38-member advisory panel including broadcaster Carol Hirschfeld, Waikato University professor Neville Robertson, and Anton Blank, the executive director of Maori welfare organisation Ririki.

Paeroa drinking water fears

From: SunLive
Published: 11:22 27/11/2014

Anti-mining activists have the backing of a retired Waikato University Professor who believes mining operations in the Karangahake Gorge would lead to contamination of the area's drinking water. An affidavit, provided to the council from a retired Professor of Chemistry from Waikato University, shows the activities consented would produce the risk of heavy metals leaching into the Waitawheta and Ohinemuri rivers.

Town's water supply at risk - protesters

From: Waikato Times
Published: 05:10 27/11/2014

The group has a signed affidavit from retired Waikato University professor of chemistry, Dr Chris Hendy, warning that the activities involved with mining would expose the air and water to acid leachate and other heavy metals.

Karangahake upset at water contamination risk

From: Bay of Plenty Times
Published: 18:20 26/11/2014

An affidavit was provided to the council from a retired Professor of Chemistry from Waikato University referred to the risk of heavy metals leaching into the Waitawheta and Ohinemuri rivers.

Historians question Key's 'shallow' knowledge of NZ history

From: MSN
Published: 17:25 26/11/2014

However, a history lecturer at Waikato University believes it was too simplistic for Mr Key to remark that New Zealand was settled in a peaceful manner.
Winners and losers as development fees set
From Waikato Times
Published 12:07 26/11/2014

In September, population projections by Waikato University’s National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis said more homes in the district would be occupied by a single person or couples without children.

City science scheme spreads its wings
From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 13:30 26/11/2014

Tauranga’s House of Science is expanding nationally after one year of operation. ... Director Chris Duggan began operations at the House of Science this year, with the help of Priority One and the University of Waikato, and has seen 3000 local children a term have access to better science education. ... “One requirement for those other areas is they need to meet in Tauranga once a year for a conference.

Electric van heading south for eRally
From Autotalk
Published 13:07 26/11/2014

A team of University of Waikato engineering students will travel to Christchurch this week to showcase their utility van at New Zealand’s first electric vehicle efficiency rally. ... The University of Waikato utility van was originally powered by a 1.3 litre petrol engine, which was replaced by an electric motor. ... The van was designed with a purpose of being used around the University of Waikato campus during the day and charged overnight.

Winners and losers as development fees set
From Taranaki Daily News
Published 12:07 26/11/2014

In September, population projections by Waikato University’s National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis said more homes in the district would be occupied by a single person or couples without children.

Winners and losers as development fees set
From Stuff.co.nz
Published 12:07 26/11/2014

In September, population projections by Waikato University’s National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis said more homes in the district would be occupied by a single person or couples without children.

Winners and losers as development fees set
From Manawatu Standard
Published 12:07 26/11/2014

In September, population projections by Waikato University’s National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis said more homes in the district would be occupied by a single person or couples without children.

Winners and losers as development fees set
From Waikato Times
Published 12:07 26/11/2014

In September, population projections by Waikato University’s National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis said more homes in the district would be occupied by a single person or couples without children.
Winners and losers as development fees set
From: Dominion Post
Published: 12:07 26/11/2014

In September, population projections by Waikato University’s National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis said more homes in the district would be occupied by a single person or couples without children.

Matt looks to science
From: Stratford Press
Published: 09:02 26/11/2014

Matt, who is heading to Waikato University next year to start a double major in geology and physics, was chosen from six applicants.

Get a foot in the door with Fifa
From: Waikato Times
Published: 11:49 24/11/2014

He's just finished the second year of a business degree at the University of Waikato, and for the last few months has juggled the life of a marketing volunteer for the Fifa U-20 World Cup.

STRATUS project to help put New Zealand on global IT map
From: TechDay
Published: 10:58 25/11/2014

A University of Waikato cyber security research project has the potential to define New Zealand’s ICT industry and have a worldwide impact, a visiting expert says.

'Peaceful settlement' view challenged
From: Radio New Zealand
Published: 05:57 25/11/2014

But a lecturer in history at Waikato University believes it was too simplistic to say that New Zealand was settled peacefully.

Hillary scholarship pays for studies
From: Waikato Times
Published: 05:25 25/11/2014

And next year there will be another development when the St Paul's Collegiate student takes up a $50,000 Sir Edmund Hillary Scholarship to the University of Waikato to study computer graphic design. ... Hillary scholars also excel in sport or the creative or performing arts.

Kiwis clamour for unreleased NZ tech
From: Computer World
Published: 08:55 24/11/2014

Dynatrace has a international presence, while Endace, which was bought by Emulex, is a spin-off from Waikato University.
Tie-breakers rule in windy conditions at Tauranga
From Waikato Times
Published 20:58 23/11/2014
Top player for Gate Pa, Jacob Scholes, out of tennis for a couple of years due to injury, showed flashes of his old self but was up against top player Andy van der Vyver, who is back after a year at a university in the United States to study at Waikato University instead.

Three ties of tennis in Tauranga
From SunLive
Published 11:10 23/11/2014
Top player for Gate Pa Jacob Scholes, out of tennis for a couple of years due to a bad injury, showed flashes of his old self but was up against top player Andy van der Vyver, who is back after a year at a university in the States to study at Waikato University instead.

Challenging time ahead
From Otago Daily Times
Published 05:28 22/11/2014
After 25 years off the air, quiz show University Challenge is returning to TV screens today, with Otago taking on "reigning champion" Waikato. ... Otago University team member Fran Allen said Waikato University was the winner last time the show aired in 1989, which "technically" made it reigning champion.

Kelly Jury on the mend for Waikato-BoP Magic
From Stuff.co.nz
Published 19:45 21/11/2014
Lately there's been her year 13 exams to focus on, and when Jury moves to Hamilton she'll study part-time at the University of Waikato, doing a sport and leisure degree.

Reigning champions up for the challenge
From Waikato Times
Published 05:10 21/11/2014
The University of Waikato team will show its smarts against Otago in University Challenge tomorrow.
Science - Computer Science
From Radio New Zealand Audio
Published 22:45 20/11/2014

Prof. Mark Apperley from University of Waikato tweezers out the silicon chips to expose how computers switch us on - artificial intelligence, drones and driverless cars.

We've got the Aussie deal covered
From Marlborough Express
Published 10:46 20/11/2014

Our farmers can take comfort, too, from Jacqueline Rowarth, an agri-business professor at the University of Waikato, who noted that we can still produce dairy products more efficiently than Australia, we have water that comes from the sky and New Zealand is still the best place for grass-fed dairy production.

PM's Scholarships for Asia announced
From Anna Lillis, NZ Government, National Party
Published 13:38 19/11/2014

Students from the University of Waikato Faculty of Law will go to Shanghai International Studies University to study law in China and another group from the university will study with a new Indonesian partner Universitas Airlangga.

Experts to talk at science evening
From Rotorua Daily Post
Published 13:03 19/11/2014

Bay of Plenty Regional Council is hosting the science discussion in association with the University of Waikato, said the regional council's lakes operations manager Andy Bruere.

Forum to discuss 'how to farm green but stay in the black'
From Bay of Plenty Regional Council
Published 10:00 19/11/2014

Bay of Plenty Regional Council is hosting the science discussion in association with the University of Waikato, Regional Council Lake Operations Manager Andy Bruere said.

Aussie deal good for NZ
From Waikato Times
Published 05:14 19/11/2014

Our farmers can take comfort, too, from Jacqueline Rowarth, an agri-business professor at the University of Waikato, who noted that we can still produce dairy products more efficiently than Australia, we have water that comes from the sky which is not the case in Australia at all times of the year, and NZ is still the best place for grass-fed dairy production.
Groser promises fresh talks with China
From Taranaki Daily News
Published 23:57 18/11/2014

Our farmers can take comfort too from Jacqueline Rowarth, an agri-business professor at the University of Waikato, who noted that we can still produce dairy products more efficiently than Australia, we have water that comes from the sky and NZ is still the best place for grass-fed dairy production.

Tough time still for some takatpui
From Radio New Zealand
Published 19:03 18/11/2014

Ngahuia Te Awekotuku, a founding member of Aotearoa’s gay liberation movement and an academic at Waikato University, said takatpui had always been a part of Mori society, as seen in historic artwork and literature.

NZ may look again at China trade deal
From Radio New Zealand
Published 09:09 18/11/2014

Jacqueline Rowarth, an agri-business professor at the University of Waikato, said New Zealand will still be a good supplier.

The IT Girls Club, for girls who want to code
From TechDay
Published 09:37 18/11/2014

In year 13, Stewart completed a first-year programming paper at the University of Waikato. ... Stewart has spent the past year studying a Bachelor of Computing and Mathematical Sciences at Waikato University. ... Nilesh Kanji, University of Waikato Computer Science tutor, worked with Stewart and the girls.

Dr Anwar Ghani: Don't link Muslim Kiwis to Isis terror
From New Zealand Herald
Published 10:29 18/11/2014

I studied at Waikato University and now live and work not far from my alma mater.

NZ aims to match China, Australia trade deal
From Newshub
Published 09:01 18/11/2014

Waikato University Professor Jaqueline Rowarth says the existing deal appears to have a clause allowing New Zealand to try to ratchet up its provisions.

NZ may look again at China free trade deal
From Radio New Zealand
Published 07:49 18/11/2014

Jaqueline Rowarth, an agri-business professor at the University of Waikato, said New Zealand will still be a good supplier.
Australia claims China deal tops NZ agreement

From Radio New Zealand
Published 05:56 18/11/2014

Jaqueline Rowarth, an agri-business professor at the University of Waikato, said New Zealand will still be a good supplier.

The Executive Club: Enter the dedicated entrepreneur

From New Zealand Herald
Published 11:00 17/11/2014

But he did fulfil a long-held desire to do additional study, initially completing a postgraduate diploma in business studies at Waikato University, then going on to finish an MBA in 2008.

Agriculture tour studies gas effect

From Manawatu Standard
Published 12:13 17/11/2014

As Waikato University's Professor Jacqueline Rowarth said several years ago, "We are only 4.4 million people, but we feed approximately another 20 million overseas."

It's not our fault, says graduate

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 23:19 16/11/2014

She completed the second year of her Witt diploma extramurally while studying a bachelor of tourism and hospitality management at the University of Waikato.

A look at the new drink-drive laws

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 08:32 16/11/2014

Government-commissioned research by Waikato University showed drivers using a simulator at 80mg swerved over centre lines, had slow reaction times, lapses in attention and made errors of judgment.

Tahu Kukutai: demography

From Radio New Zealand Audio
Published 09:44 15/11/2014

Dr Tahu Kukutai is Senior Research Fellow the National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis - Te Runanga Tatari Tatauranga at the University of Waikato.

Former Kaitaia man bags scholarship

From Northern Advocate
Published 07:00 15/11/2014

PRICE: University of Waikato Jubilee Scholar John Bell, from Kaitaia, with his parents Allan and Amanda after he received his Golden Jubilee Scholarship that's worth up to $40,000. ... Mr Bell, a former Kaitaia College student, had just learned he had been awarded one of only 10 Golden Jubilee Scholarships to the University of Waikato.
Students angry qualifications scrapped
From Radio New Zealand
Published 16:37 14/11/2014

She did the performing arts certificate in 2009 and the diploma the following year alongside her studies at Waikato University.

Scholarship team set to compete in Round the Bridges
From Lauren Heginbotham, U Leisure Limited
Published 14:02 14/11/2014

A University of Waikato Sir Edmund Hillary Scholarship team is set to compete in this Sunday’s Round the Bridges. ... These students receive full fee scholarships to the University of Waikato. ... It’s a chance for the Hillary Scholars to get together outside of our regular professional development get togethers throughout the year.

The Executive Club: Enter the dedicated entrepreneur
From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 13:24 14/11/2014

But he did fulfil a long-held desire to do additional study, initially completing a postgraduate diploma in business studies at Waikato University, then going on to finish an MBA in 2008.

Ambitious research line up for Nga Pae
From Waatea News
Published 09:19 14/11/2014

Andrew Erueti from the University of Waikato will investigate international best practice, co-ownership and co-management models to assess how Maori communities can most effectively engage with the extractive industry.

World-class musicians to support Otago Community Hospice
From Merrin Bath, Strategy First
Published 08:04 14/11/2014

As well as performing concerts throughout New Zealand the Trio will adjudicate the 9th annual Pettman/ROSL Arts Chamber Music Scholarship for Young NZ Musicians at Waikato University (14-16 November).

10 bites from TVNZ's new shows
From New Zealand Herald
Published 09:00 13/11/2014

Following a succession of various bogan import shows from Australia, this 10-episode documentary presents the work of Bogan-ologist David Snell, the Hamiltonian who has a Waikato University PhD in boganism.

Stratford High student wins Tag Oil scholarship
From Taranaki Daily News
Published 04:06 13/11/2014

Kowalewski is heading to Waikato University next year to start a double major in geology and physics.
NPM research to optimise Maori economic performance
From Maramatanga Communications
Published 16:30 12/11/2014
This project team led by Mr Andrew Erueti, (University of Waikato) will investigate international best practice, co-ownership and co-management models to assess how Mori communities can most effectively engage with Extractive Industry companies. ... Led by Dr Robert Joseph, (University of Waikato) this team will identify sustainable and scalable models of active land trust management that will enhance the economic performance of Mori land trusts, and also identify models of collaboration to enhance economic performance.

Polynesian astronomy in spotlight
From Waatea News
Published 15:19 12/11/2014
Over the next couple of years researchers from the University of Waikato, Victoria University of Wellington, and the University of Hawai‘i will delve further into those astronomical traditions with the help of a $710,000 Marsden Fund grant.

Award backs up years of hard work, say winners
From Waikato Times
Published 11:58 12/11/2014
Those lawyers are given a hand by the 80 to 100 volunteers mulling around at any given time - either in other law buildings around town, or over at Waikato University between their law lectures.

New taonga rules may be 'devastating'
From Radio New Zealand
Published 08:31 12/11/2014
Pou Temara, a professor of culture and Maori language at the University of Waikato, said taonga are often family heirlooms.

Balloons festival looking for new sponsor
From Waikato Times
Published 05:14 12/11/2014
It attracts tens of thousands of spectators each year and the bank held shared naming rights for one of its highlights - the Nightglow at Waikato University. ... Other strategic partners of the festival are the University of Waikato, Hamilton City Council and WEL Energy Trust.

Hui focuses on growing Maori economy
From Radio New Zealand
Published 18:51 11/11/2014
More than 50 people attended the hui at Waikato University in Hamilton.
Caliph's death could splinter Islamic State

From Newshub
Published 11:25 11/11/2014

But if he has, there's a good chance the group could fall apart, says international law expert Alexander Gillespie from Waikato University.

Stranded woman says she will never go tramping again

From New Zealand Herald
Published 11:22 10/11/2014

The Waikato University said she then spent a "helpless and hopeless" night 1500m up the mountain while she waited to be rescued.

Careers advisors gear up to help high flyers

From Andy Howells
Published 10:02 10/11/2014

The local CATE members (who are also the conference organising committee) are made up of representatives from local schools, private training providers, Bay of Plenty Polytechnic, University of Waikato and Massey University. "We have one of the most collaborative CATE groups in the country," says Jo. "We continually share best practice and work together across the education spectrum and world of work to provide the best possible opportunities for our rangatahi." ... The conference's theme sponsor, The Bay of Plenty Tertiary Education Partnership (Te Whare Wnanga o Awanuiarangi, Bay of Plenty Polytechnic, Waiariki Institute of Technology and the University of Waikato), is a great fit for the CATE conference as it also echoes the same commitments to education.

Samoan funerals costing $60k crippling grieving families

From TVNZ
Published 19:55 09/11/2014

Waikato University researcher Byron Seiuli says some people are going to extreme lengths.

Robotic snakes could soon replace dogs in search for earthquake survivors

From TVNZ
Published 18:48 09/11/2014

Created by Pinwei Jin as part of his masters degree study at Waikato University, the snake uses an onboard camera to find its way.

Providing future pathways

From SunLive
Published 14:08 09/11/2014

Priority One instep manager Lyn Parlane says presenters, both national and international include, Dr Peter McIlveen from the University of Southern Queensland, Dr Carol Johnson from the University of Wisconsin-Stout, highly successful New Zealand shoe designer Kathryn Wilson, and the Waikato University professor of coastal marine science Chris Battershill. ... The conference theme sponsor is the Bay of Plenty Tertiary Partnership, comprising University of Waikato, Bay of Plenty Polytechnic, Te Whare Wananga Awanuiarangi and Waiariki Institute of Technology. ... Waikato University professor of coastal marine science Chris Battershill - speaking on the fascinating story of how the region became a centre of high level collaboration.
Hamilton steakhouse wins business of the year title

From Waikato Times
Published 05:14 08/11/2014

An independent panel of judges from Waikato University's Management School and the Waikato branch of the Institute of Directors assessed the applicants.

Our city's 'Soldiers of Allah'

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 05:00 08/11/2014

"Without a shadow of a doubt they will be watching them [Soldiers of Allah] very closely," said Alexander Gillespie, a professor of law at the University of Waikato.

Help! There's no equation to use

From SciBlogs.co.nz
Published 14:44 07/11/2014

Today the University of Waikato is hosting a group of local secondary physics teachers.

Bleach 'cure' tagged for investigation

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 12:25 07/11/2014

Waikato University senior lecturer of biological sciences Alison Campbell said there was "no way" MMS could chemically do what was claimed.

Search for Beryllium partner wins 3MT Competition

From New Zealand Royal Society
Published 21:44 06/11/2014

Each of the University of Waikato PhD students had three minutes and a static Power Point slide in which to explain their thesis to three judges and a full-house on Thursday 30 October at the Gallagher Academy of Performing Arts. ... From Nigeria, Raymond is now 18 months into his PhD in Chemistry at Waikato University. ... 3MT is supported by Prior Blackburn and the University of Waikato Foundation, and showcases research being carried out by the University’s PhD students.

Alert Newsletter 837

From New Zealand Royal Society
Published 21:44 06/11/2014

Hamilton, 20 November, Lecture Theatre, Waikato Museum, 1 Grantham Street, South end of Victoria Street, at 6pm: A public discussion about the implications of demographic changes in Hamilton, with presentations from the report’s authors (Professor Gary Hawke FRSNZ, Dr Tahu Kukutai and Professor Richard Bedford FRSNZ) and a panel including Julie Hardaker (The Mayor of Hamilton), Parekawhia McLean (Chief Executive, Waikato Tainui), Professor Natalie Jackson (Professor of Demography, University of Waikato), and introduced by Mr Peter McKinlay (McKinlay Douglas Ltd). ... Journalist and author Richard Louv will be giving a free lecture entitled ‘The Hybrid Mind: The more high-tech our lives become, the more nature we need’ at the University of Waikato on 13 November from 12 to 1pm. ... Details: 12-1pm Thursday 13 November, Concert Chamber, Gallagher Academy of Performing Arts, University of Waikato.
Open day a chance to explore Waiwhakareke

From Diane Crawford, Hamilton City Council
Published 14:58 06/11/2014

The project is overseen by the Waiwhakareke Advisory Group, which comprises representatives of the various stakeholders, including Hamilton City Council, Tui 2000, Waikato University, Wintec, the Department of Conservation, and the neighbouring Hamilton Zoo.

James & Wells appoints two Solicitors to its commercial team

From Amanda Nodder, Wright Communications
Published 12:50 06/11/2014

Aasha holds a Bachelor of Laws, majoring in law and politics from the University of Waikato, and is a Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand. ... She holds a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) from the University of Waikato and is a Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand.

Summer 2014 What’s On

From Art News New Zealand
Published 07:43 06/11/2014

Calder and Lawson Gallery, University of Waikato, Hamilton The Way Home, Margaret Aull to Dec 12

Video gaming, violent crime not linked: study

From Dominion Post
Published 05:00 06/11/2014

University of Waikato media studies researcher Gareth Schott said the new study added to other research over the years demonstrating no link between video game violence and crime.

Hamilton reviews terror risk

From Waikato Times
Published 05:14 06/11/2014

University of Waikato professor of law Alexander Gillespie agreed high-profile events, including both the cricket and U-20 cups arriving in Hamilton next year, carried a terrorism risk.

Videos, violent crime not linked - research

From Dominion Post
Published 05:00 06/11/2014

University of Waikato media studies researcher Gareth Schott said the new study added to other research over the years demonstrating no link between video game violence and crime.

$800,000 to review 'sin tax'

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 22:36 05/11/2014

A team led by a University of Waikato researcher has just received $800,000 to study the idea, focusing on sugary soft drinks and cigarettes.
Videos, violent crime not linked - research

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 05:00 06/11/2014

University of Waikato media studies researcher Gareth Schott said the new study added to other research over the years demonstrating no link between video game violence and crime.

Kiwis supporting Islamic State 'surprising'

From Dominion Post
Published 17:28 05/11/2014

University of Waikato law professor Alexander Gillespie was surprised by the "concerning" number of people on the Government's foreign fighter watchlist.

Poly win Microsoft award

From SunLive
Published 15:53 05/11/2014

From left: Patrick van Rinsvelt, Application Development Team Leader, Bay of Plenty Polytechnic; Rabindra Das, IT Manager, Bay of Plenty Polytechnic; Kevin Adamson, Head of Information & Technology Services Division, University of Waikato; Matt Bostwick, Tertiary Education Sector Manager, Microsoft.

How Christchurch avoided depopulation

From New Zealand Herald
Published 13:00 05/11/2014

Natalie Jackson, professor of demography at Waikato University’s National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis, told of places in decline and Johnson said these trends posed problems for the insurance sector.

Training our talent for a future in other places

From Waikato Times
Published 11:56 05/11/2014

At the time the University of Waikato, Waikato Institute of Technology and Te Wananga O Aoteoroa all offered courses and degrees in film and television production, as well as many other fields that act as peripheries to film making.

Marsden scholars reach for the stars

From Waatea News
Published 12:19 05/11/2014

Dr Rangi Matamua from the University of Waikato has a $710,000 grant for his Te Mauria Whiritoi project looking at the sky as a cultural resource, examining Maori beliefs, practices and observations in relation to astronomy, ecology and ritual.
Conference set to answer the big questions about NZ’s highest power

From: NZ Lawyer Magazine
Published: 11:58 05/11/2014

Other speakers include Sir Peter Blanchard KNZM, Former Justice of the Supreme Court; Professor Margaret Wilson DCNZM: University of Waikato, Max Harris, Rhodes Scholar, University of Oxford former Judge’s Clerk at the Supreme Court; and Sir Grant Hammond, President of the Law Commission.

Marsden Fund: In search of bright ideas

From: New Zealand Herald
Published: 08:35 05/11/2014

In answering this question, Professor John Gibson and colleagues at the University of Waikato will claim a world first.

'Drongos' frustrate farmers

From: Taranaki Daily News
Published: 23:56 04/11/2014

University of Waikato professor of agribusiness Jacqueline Rowarth said modern workers did not want to work in an industry that was seen as archaic.

'Drongos' frustrate farmers

From: Stuff.co.nz
Published: 23:56 04/11/2014

University of Waikato professor of agribusiness Jacqueline Rowarth said modern workers did not want to work in an industry that was seen as archaic.

'Drongos' frustrate farmers

From: Manawatu Standard
Published: 23:56 04/11/2014

University of Waikato professor of agribusiness Jacqueline Rowarth said modern workers did not want to work in an industry that was seen as archaic.

'Drongos' frustrate farmers

From: Dominion Post
Published: 23:56 04/11/2014

University of Waikato professor of agribusiness Jacqueline Rowarth said modern workers did not want to work in an industry that was seen as archaic.

Production 'can be sustainable'

From: Radio New Zealand
Published: 14:06 04/11/2014

Dr Ali Saleh is from Texas Institute for Applied Environmental Research and is in this country for the 21st Century Watershed Technology Conference at Waikato University.
Questions over 'hitchhiking weasels'
FromWaikato Times
Published10:44 04/11/2014

However, Waikato University's School of Science Associate Professor Dr Carolyn King, who has studied weasels for 47 years, said the photograph from MPI did not match the look of a weasel.

Questions over 'hitchhiking weasels'
FromStuff.co.nz
Published10:44 04/11/2014

However, Waikato University's School of Science Associate Professor Dr Carolyn King, who has studied weasels for 47 years, said the photograph from MPI did not match the look of a weasel.

Waiairiki Institute of Technology announces senior appointments
FromMarisa Balle, Waiairiki Institute of Technology
Published09:36 04/11/2014

Robyn gained a Bachelors degree from the University of Waikato, has a Diploma in Teaching and a Masters in Education from Deakin University Australia.

Campbell & Gould on neoliberalism
FromThe Standard
Published07:20 04/11/2014

Rhodes Scholar, British Labour MP, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Waikato, author of many books, occasional writer for The Herald, and author here at The Standard.

Serpent learning to help out in a disaster
FromNew Zealand Herald
Published06:00 04/11/2014

Mr Jin is completing a Master of Engineering at Waikato University.

Waikato PhDs
FromWaatea News
Published13:19 03/11/2014

Waikato University

Newsletter: Fulbright New Zealand Quarterly, November 2014
FromAndy Mitchell, Fulbright
Published11:16 03/11/2014

Fulbright alumnus Le Mamea Taulapapa Sefulu Ioane (1979 NZ Educational Development Grant), was honoured with a Distinguished Alumni Award by The University of Waikato, where he was one of the first Pacific graduates, in September. ... Sir Tamati gave lectures at the University of Canterbury in July and the University of Otago in October, and will repeat the same lecture at Massey University Manawat, the University of Waikato (where he was a staff member for many years) and the University of Auckland in November.
NZ to become involved in fight against ISIS?
From Newstalk ZB
Published 15:04 02/11/2014

Waiotako University Professor Alexander Gillespie says ISIS have committed every war and humanitarian crime imaginable.

Todd Muller’s maiden speech
From Home Paddock
Published 10:00 02/11/2014

Finally, my thanks to those who have backed me throughout my career, often affording me opportunities that my experience did not justify, particularly the late Professor Lew Fretz at Waiotako University, you Mr Speaker in my early days in the National Party, Doug Voss at Zespri, and Theo Spierings at Fonterra. ... I went to the local school at Te Puna, then Tauranga Boys’ College, then the University of Waikato where I followed my passion for public service and its contribution to history.

Nuffield scholars announced
From Home Paddock
Published 09:00 02/11/2014

Singh has a Bachelor of Management Studies with Honours (Majoring in Marketing and Human Resources) and a Graduate Diploma in Accounting from the University of Waikato.

Return of the living dead - the towns fight back
From New Zealand Herald
Published 06:00 02/11/2014

"We have an arrangement with University of Auckland Law School and University of Waiotako that will give students the opportunity to work here over their summer breaks and earn credits towards their courses."

Waikato politicians pitch for Labour’s top jobs
From Waikato Times
Published 05:28 01/11/2014

She graduated from Golden Kiwi to work part-time at The Warehouse and Countdown while schooling and studying at Waiotako University, where she got a degree in communications.

Waikato politicians pitch for Labour’s top jobs
From Dominion Post
Published 05:00 01/11/2014

She graduated from Golden Kiwi to work part-time at The Warehouse and Countdown while schooling and studying at Waiotako University, where she got a degree in communications.

Waikato politicians pitch for Labour’s top jobs
From Waikato Times
Published 05:00 01/11/2014

She graduated from Golden Kiwi to work part-time at The Warehouse and Countdown while schooling and studying at Waiotako University, where she got a degree in communications.
Producer defends Dead Lands's violence

From Waatea News
Published 14:49 31/10/2014

The film has been slammed by Waikato University academic Leonie Pihama as violent, stereotypical and not an authentic Maori movie.

Five Nuffield Farming Scholars named for 2014

From Federated Farmers
Published 20:00 30/10/2014

Singh has a Bachelor of Management Studies with Honours (Majoring in Marketing and Human Resources) and a Graduate Diploma in Accounting from the University of Waikato.

Alert Newsletter 836

From New Zealand Royal Society
Published 18:44 30/10/2014

Hamilton: Playhouse Theatre, Gallagher Academy of Performing Arts, Waikato University, 6.30 Thursday 6 November

Animated classic Ponyo to screen at Massey Albany

From Sonia Yoshioka Braid, Massey University
Published 16:39 30/10/2014

This film will also be shown at the University of Waikato on November 6.

From Muriel Newman
Published 14:26 29/10/2014

I asked this week’s NZCPR Guest Commentator, Dr Ron Smith, the former Director of International Relations and Security Studies at the University of Waikato, to share his views on the terrorist threat faced by New Zealand.

100

From Waatea News
Published 13:19 29/10/2014

Ten University of Waikato PhD candidates will tonight take the three-minute thesis challenge, where they will try to explain their research to an audience of non-academics in just three minutes.

Sporting star proud of helping others

From Nelson Mail
Published 12:56 29/10/2014

She has applied for a scholarship at the University of Waikato and if she does not get it will have a gap year in Christchurch with the aim of playing for their National Provincial Championship rugby team.
Kiwifruit’s future under scrutiny
From SunLive
Published 11:51 29/10/2014
Among the keynote speakers are: Cameron Bagrie, Chief Economist for ANZ New Zealand, Jacqueline Rowarth, Professor of Agribusiness at University of Waikato, Doug Stephens one of the world's foremost retail industry futurists.

Talented trio win scholarships
From Rotorua Daily Post
Published 09:46 29/10/2014
Fintan was also one of 10 students awarded a $40,000 University of Waikato scholarship, along with Samantha.

Six degrees of fascination
From NZ Education Review
Published 20:05 28/10/2014
Master of Clinical Animal Behaviour: University of Waikato ... From next year, the University of Waikato will be offering postgraduate qualifications in clinical animal behaviour.

The Postgrad Calendar
From NZ Education Review
Published 20:05 28/10/2014
University of Waikato: Postgraduate Month ... October is Postgraduate Month (PGM) at the University of Waikato.

How do Kiwi universities measure up on the global stage?
From NZ Education Review
Published 20:04 28/10/2014
University of Canterbury (242), Victoria University of Wellington (275=), and Massey University (346) are also slightly down on last year’s rankings, while University of Waikato (401-410) retains its position. ... The majority of New Zealand universities slipped down a few places in the THE rankings, with The University of Auckland ranked 175 (down from 164 last year); the University of Otago ranked 251-275th (down from 226-250), both Victoria University of Wellington and the University of Canterbury held their ranks (at 276-300th and 301-350 respectively), while the University of Waikato dropped from 301-350 to 351-400.

Can universities save the planet?
From New Zealand Herald
Published 14:00 28/10/2014
Waikato University Deputy Vice Chancellor Professor Alister Jones believes a foundation in the issues the world faces is important: “If we are going to be educating the next generation, we want to introduce them to the challenges that they are going to face in their lives.
A weight lifted, a way yet to go

From Rotorua Daily Post
Published 13:58 28/10/2014

"Prior to working here (Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu), I worked at the University of Waikato and Te Whare Wananga o Awanuiarangi.

Five bright ideas to improve the world

From New Zealand Herald
Published 13:15 28/10/2014

The University of Waikato's Professor David Hamilton leads Lake Ecosystem Restoration New Zealand (LERNZ) and is also President of the New Zealand Freshwater Sciences Society.

UCOL praised for keeping tuition fees low

From Manawatu Standard
Published 12:00 28/10/2014

Massey, Victoria, Otago, AUT and Lincoln universities had already approved a rise this year, with Auckland voting to do the same last week and Waikato and Canterbury universities expected to follow.

Students shine in business awards

From Waikato Times
Published 11:19 28/10/2014

Just Kidding Babysitting also scooped two other awards - the Staples Rodway Financial Management Award and a University of Waikato Leadership Award for chief executive Victoria Chan.

Beaten but unbowed: Waikato eye brighter future

From Waikato Times
Published 23:28 26/10/2014

The next step was to re-establish a Waikato club competition but in the meantime the Auckland competition, which Waikato University won this year, produced a strong level of rugby in which to play.

Bernard Hickey looks at whether a demographic dividend for the economy over the last 50 years is about to turn into a demographic drag

From Interest.co.nz
Published 10:43 24/10/2014

He was talking in Wellington at an event organised by Waikato University and economic research group Motu about the idea of a demographic dividend and what might be done to soften or offset it when it unwinds.
Woman forced from seat by obese passenger

From Dominion Post
Published 21:46 24/10/2014

But Carolyn Costley, associate professor in marketing at Waikato University, said the practice could lead to price discrimination against the overweight: "It becomes a punishment on people who may not have control over their size."

School looks to grow industry

From SunLive
Published 15:38 24/10/2014

NZ Kiwifruit Growers Inc president Neil Trebilco says such an academy will be of great value to the community, and highlights the link between the schools' vision and the tertiary action plan where a newpurpose-built shared tertiary campus will be built in the heart of Tauranga's CBD. ... The campus is proposed by the Bay of Plenty Tertiary Education Partnership, which is made up of four tertiary institutions - Bay of Plenty Polytechnic, Te Whare Wananga o Awanuiarangi, Wairiki Institute of Technology and the University of Waikato.

Are humans more suited to stone age lifestyle?

From Massey University
Published 01:10 24/10/2014

Hamilton, November 6, 6.30pm, Playhouse Theatre, Gallagher Academy of Performing Arts, University of Waikato

Responsible drinkers would suffer from shorter hours, expert says

From Dominion Post
Published 14:07 24/10/2014

Waikato University senior lecturer in marketing Linda Hollebeek said “heavy drinkers” would simply start buying booze earlier and stockpiling it if off-licence premises, like bottle stores and supermarkets, had their 11pm cut-off shortened by two hours.

Parliament needs armed guards - O'Connor

From Newshub
Published 09:54 24/10/2014

Waikato University law expert Alexander Gillespie says there is a risk a similar attack could be carried out in New Zealand if we join the military effort against Islamic State (IS, also known as ISIS).

NZ is 'already a target for terrorists' - expert (0:39)

From TVNZ Video, TVNZ
Published 09:09 24/10/2014

Waikato University's Al Gillespie says New Zealand is already a target but the risk would be heightened if the Celebrating Young Science Orators

From: Radio New Zealand Audio
Published: 21:25 23/10/2014

Correspondence School student Siska Falconer raises the issue of antibiotic resistance, which you can also read about in her blog about the evolution of superbugs; University of Waikato engineering student Rochelle Molina discusses how fish scales could be used to produce new biodegradable plastics; St. Patricks College student Jack Wynne explores the future of quantum computers; and Grant McNaughton from Logan Park High School argues that scientific literacy should be as important as reading and writing.

Ttere MacLeod is keen to keep Kahungunu reo alive

From: Maori Television
Published: 17:04 22/10/2014

He’s completed a 40,000 word thesis “Te Rautaki Reo Mori o Ngti Kahungunu” for his Masters at Waikato University, which analyses the state of Te Reo Mori in Ngti Kahungunu, almost a decade on since its reo strategy was launched.

Alert Newsletter 835

From: New Zealand Royal Society
Published: 17:05 23/10/2014

3.00 pm Professor Robert Hannah, University of Waikato ... Hamilton: Playhouse Theatre, Gallagher Academy of Performing Arts, Waikato University, 6.30 Thursday 6 November ... The conference is being held this year at the University of Waikato, from 3 to 6 November.

Meditation seminar in NZ

From: NZ Catholic
Published: 14:57 23/10/2014

The World Community for Christian Meditation is holding the 2015 John Main Seminar at Waikato University in Hamilton this January.

Fieldays worth $421 million to NZ economy

From: Diesel Talk
Published: 11:09 23/10/2014

The positive economic impact of the National Fieldays held annually at Mystery Creek since 1968, can be felt far beyond the Waikato region says a Waikato University report. ... The report was prepared by Dr Warren Hughes for The Institute of Business Research at Waikato University, says that visitor expenditure, equipment sales, and organisational expenditure at Fieldays tallied up to $138.20 million for the Waikato region, and for all of New Zealand the tally came to $421 million.

Student union backs fees but seeks results

From: Manawatu Standard
Published: 12:00 23/10/2014

Massey, Victoria, Otago, AUT and Lincoln universities had already approved a raise this year, with Auckland voting to do the same this week and Waikato and Canterbury universities expected to follow.
Fieldays worth $421 million to NZ economy
From Autotalk
Published 11:08 23/10/2014

The positive economic impact of the National Fieldays held annually at Mystery Creek since 1968, can be felt far beyond the Waikato region says a Waikato University report. ... The report was prepared by Dr Warren Hughes for The Institute of Business Research at Waikato University, says that visitor expenditure, equipment sales, and organisational expenditure at Fieldays tallied up to $138.20 million for the Waikato region, and for all of New Zealand the tally came to $421 million.

Wheel fun as Lego robots set pace
From Stuff.co.nz
Published 05:00 23/10/2014

The robot race was part of the Carter Holt Harvey Pulp & Paper engineering design show at Waikato University where students got to show what they had learned throughout the year.

Fieldays big boost for economy
From Radio New Zealand
Published 07:14 23/10/2014

This year’s National Agricultural Fieldays benefited the national economy by $421.5 million in terms of the revenue it generated - $50 million more than last year, an economic impact analysis done by Waikato University shows.

Scholars graduate at Uni Marae
From Waikato Times
Published 11:50 22/10/2014

Hundreds of people packed the courtyard of Te Kohinga Marama Marae at Waikato University to celebrate the capping of 60 gown-clad scholars. ... This is a big opportunity for me, being here at Waikato Uni.”

Growing revolution fired by Psa disease
From Rural News
Published 08:57 22/10/2014

APPLICATIONS FOR FMG’s agriculture scholarships are now open and will this year include school leavers looking to study ag-based degrees at Waikato University.

Boom for beef and sheep?
From Rural News
Published 09:11 22/10/2014

APPLICATIONS FOR FMG’s agriculture scholarships are now open and will this year include school leavers looking to study ag-based degrees at Waikato University.

‘Grey’ market lends a silver lining
From Rural News
Published 09:18 22/10/2014

APPLICATIONS FOR FMG’s agriculture scholarships are now open and will this year include school leavers looking to study ag-based degrees at Waikato University. ... University of Waikato professor of agribusiness Jacqueline Rowarth says rumours of the grey market have been circulating, including through China.
Honorary PhD for Sir Dryden

From Waikato Times
Published 09:35 22/10/2014

He'll collect the letters PhD as he is handed an honorary doctorate by the University of Waikato.

Business leader receives honorary doctorate

From Waikato Times
Published 09:20 22/10/2014

He'll collect the letters PhD as he is handed an honorary doctorate by the University of Waikato.

$200m needed for Maori research - academic

From Radio New Zealand
Published 08:13 22/10/2014

But an Associate Professor at Waikato University, Leonie Pihama, says that is not enough.

Te Manu Korihi News for 22 October 2014

From Radio New Zealand Audio
Published 07:25 22/10/2014

An Associate Professor at Waikato University says the government should be allocating about 200-million dollars a year towards Maori research; A Maori Students’ Association, Nga Tauira Maori, says ongoing fee hikes for tertiary study may rule tangata whenua out of top jobs; Meanwhile, a significant number of Maori people are returning home from Australia - some of whom are coming back for their tertiary studies; The author of a book about the early years of settlement in the Bay of Islands says her work tells a story that has never been explored in depth.

Fee hike adds to student debt mountain

From Waikato Times
Published 05:00 22/10/2014

The University of Waikato Council last week supported a recommendation to raise fees by 4 per cent - the maximum allowable - and Wintec set the same increase in June. ... Fees were a necessary evil for University of Waikato student Caitlin Lowe, 21, and she said a rise would affect students.

Te Manu Korihi News for 21 October 2014

From Radio New Zealand Audio
Published 07:25 21/10/2014

The Maori Party MP, Marama Fox, says she will continue to put pressure on the government to include the Treaty of Waitangi when taking an oath; A senior lecturer at Waikato University is welcoming anyone working with Te Reo to participate in an upcoming national hui about keeping the language alive because its survival is not just for academics to discuss; Ta moko artists will join together as part of an open exhibition in Gisborne, where members of the public can be tattooed; The finalists for the Aotearoa Maori book awards have been announced, and include a majority of books about Maori development.
Jan Logie to speak at panel on Rainbow Mental Health

From Simon Hinchco
Published 02:04 21/10/2014

The panel will take place in Te Whare Tapere Iti at the Gallagher Centre for Performing Arts at the University of Waikato on 1 November 2014, starting at 3:00pm.

Warning Te Reo hui may be confronting

From Radio New Zealand
Published 18:21 20/10/2014

Waikato University’s School of Maori and Pacific Development, Te Pua Wananga ki te Ao, is hosting a day-long hui called Te Whakahaumanutanga o Te Reo Maori symposium on 13 December.

Jacinda Ardern: Judge me on my competency not my age

From TVNZ
Published 07:43 20/10/2014

After graduating from Waikato University, she spent time working in the offices of Phil Goff and of Helen Clark as a researcher.

iTunes controller makes Waikato student finalist

From Waikato Times
Published 05:39 18/10/2014

Next year, Sharp plans to study computer science at the University of Waikato, specialising in software development.

Visiting Harvard Professor Bloom urges NZ to raise retirement age

From National Business Review (NBR)
Published 14:50 17/10/2014

Speaking in Wellington at a joint Motu Economics and Public Policy and Waikato University evening lecture yesterday, Professor David Bloom, Harvard's Clarence James Gamble Professor of Economics and Demography, said an ageing population can prove to be both a blessing and curse to economic stability. ... He was in New Zealand as Waikato University’s Golden Jubilee distinguished professor, and remarked on the intellectual atmosphere he found during his month in Hamilton.

Worried Hamilton pensioners seek new homes in Waipa

From Waikato Times
Published 05:06 17/10/2014

He said pensioner housing would need to double in the next 10 years and recent demographic figures from Waikato University showed Waipa’s aged population would increase.
Glassons backtracks over skinny mannequins

From    NZME News Service
Published 20:20 16/10/2014

Dr Mark Kilgour of Waikato University's marketing department said the backlash against Glassons depended on whether its target market cared and how the store handled the publicity.

Glassons ditches skinny mannequins

From    New Zealand Herald
Published 21:05 16/10/2014

Dr Mark Kilgour of Waikato University's marketing department said the backlash against Glassons depended on whether its target market cared and how the store handled the publicity.

Alert Newsletter 834

From    New Zealand Royal Society
Published 18:36 16/10/2014

Hamilton: Playhouse Theatre, Gallagher Academy of Performing Arts, Waikato University, 6.30 Thursday 6 November

NO WHAT-IFs FOR BATES

From    Gisborne Herald
Published 17:26 16/10/2014

Aroha has two more years of study at Waikato University for a degree in sport and recreation so we'll be moving over there. ... Bates also made the ND Maori team who toured Rarotonga and played against Wellington and Central Districts Maori and Waikato University. ... Bates was their most consistent player with the bat and produced a match-winning effort with the ball against Waikato University when he claimed four wickets for 30 runs off eight overs.

Accolade for key Rena figure

From    SunLive
Published 15:47 16/10/2014

A Waikato University chemistry professor whose work in fingerprinting the Rena's oil was of prime importance has been awarded the title Emeritus Professor. ... "Professor Wilkins' reputation, energy and skills in analytical chemistry were of great importance in securing significant funding for the University to investigate the environmental effects after the grounding of the Rena," says University of Waikato Vice-Chancellor Professor Roy Crawford. ... He came to the University of Waikato in 1975 as a lecturer, and retired a professor in 2013.

Anne Boleyn hits Meteor stage

From    Waikato Times
Published 10:34 16/10/2014

Mike Taylor plays King Henry, while his brother David Taylor portrays King James I. Jono Carter plays the ambitious Thomas Cromwell, and University of Waikato English lecturer Mark Houlahan embodies the character of the preening Cardinal Wolsey.
Anne Boleyn hits Meteor stage
From Waikato Times
Published 10:34 16/10/2014

Mike Taylor plays King Henry, while his brother David Taylor portrays King James I. Jono Carter plays the ambitious Thomas Cromwell, and University of Waikato English lecturer Mark Houlahan embodies the character of the preening Cardinal Wolsey.

Kiwi academic made Emeritus Professor
From Newstalk ZB
Published 12:04 16/10/2014

A New Zealand academic who worked with the United Nations and was instrumental in leading research into the environmental impact of the Rena disaster has been honoured by Waikato University.

Big piano to get a workout
From Waikato Times
Published 10:51 16/10/2014

Waikato University senior lecturer in music Katherine Austin has described Leathwick as a virtuoso and Mann said he was thrilled to have him perform. ... On Sunday at 1pm there will be another concert featuring musicians from the University of Waikato conservatorium and local performers.

New Zealand's ISIS fight role questioned as UN Security Council vote nears
From TVNZ
Published 09:40 16/10/2014

University of Waikato Professor Al Gillespie says that both Turkey and Spain are strong contenders for the seat and believes New Zealand has a 50/50 chance of being selected for a spot.

Hawkes Bay student receives The Golden Jubilee School Leaver scholarship.
From All About Hawkes Bay
Published 19:57 15/10/2014

Ten secondary school students are being awarded nearly $40,000 each to study at the University of Waikato.

Mooloos snap up Turoa's talent
From Nelson Mail
Published 13:41 15/10/2014

Likely to study Maori at the University of Waikato, Turoa said he was looking forward to working with new coaches in a new environment.

MPs doing OK
From Waikato Times
Published 12:00 15/10/2014

One of the students doing research at the Waikato University on the New Zealand tax system said our MPs pay a very, very low income tax and they also get all the benefits during their term.
CEO's heart is in the country
From The Press
Published 20:59 14/10/2014
His later education was at Morrinsville Intermediate and Hamilton Boys' High School before earning a bachelor of management studies at Waikato University, where he studied accounting, marketing and law.

CEO's heart is in the country
From Stuff.co.nz
Published 20:59 14/10/2014
His later education was at Morrinsville Intermediate and Hamilton Boys' High School before earning a bachelor of management studies at Waikato University, where he studied accounting, marketing and law.

CEO's heart is in the country
From Taranaki Daily News
Published 20:59 14/10/2014
His later education was at Morrinsville Intermediate and Hamilton Boys' High School before earning a bachelor of management studies at Waikato University, where he studied accounting, marketing and law.

CEO's heart is in the country
From Manawatu Standard
Published 20:59 14/10/2014
His later education was at Morrinsville Intermediate and Hamilton Boys' High School before earning a bachelor of management studies at Waikato University, where he studied accounting, marketing and law.

Good ideas confusing teachers
From Waatea News
Published 15:36 14/10/2014
Russell Bishop is this week being made an emeritus professor by Waikato University.

'Tall, slim bodies' better for clothes, says NZ designer
From Southland Times
Published 12:49 14/10/2014
University of Waikato health education lecturer Debi Futter-Puati called on Glassons to portray a diverse range of women's body sizes as part of its social responsibility to its customers.
'Tall, slim bodies' better for clothes, says NZ designer

From Stuff.co.nz
Published 12:49 14/10/2014

University of Waikato health education lecturer Debi Futter-Puati called on Glassons to portray a diverse range of women's body sizes as part of its social responsibility to its customers.

Building on Success

From Waatea News
Published 13:06 14/10/2014

She congratulated Russell Bishop, one of the developers of the programme He Kotahitanga, who is being made an emeritus professor by Waikato University.

Seattle chiefs turn back on Columbus

From Waatea News
Published 13:06 14/10/2014

Waikato University academic Leonie Pihama is in Seattle, Washington on her way home from an indigenous research conference.

Uni goes for Green Gown

From Waikato Times
Published 12:51 14/10/2014

The University of Waikato is a newbie at the Australasian Green Gown Awards, but it's already a finalist. ... Waste minimisation has been a key focus over the last two years for the University of Waikato, after audits showed 350 tonnes of waste were going to landfill annually.

UN vote on Security Council non-permanent seats (Newstalk ZB)

From Yahoo
Published 08:56 13/10/2014

Waikato University Professor Alexander Gillespie says the UN Security Council is the ultimate body in the international world.

UN vote on Security Council non-permanent seats

From Newstalk ZB
Published 07:56 13/10/2014

Waikato University Professor Alexander Gillespie says the UN Security Council is the ultimate body in the international world.

Hamilton in time warp for birthday bash

From Waikato Times
Published 14:21 12/10/2014

The next planned event is on November 2 when the streets of Hamilton will be transformed to a bygone era with classic cars making their way from the Classic Museum in Frankton to Waikato University, their drivers and passengers dressed in period costume.
Our People: Julia Edward
From Rotorua Daily Post
Published 17:00 11/10/2014

From Girls' High she moved to Waikato University, taking papers in sport, leisure and business. ... Education: Otonga Primary, Rotorua Intermediate, Girls' High, Waikato and Massey Universities.

Hamilton in time warp for birthday bash
From Waikato Times
Published 13:21 11/10/2014

The next planned event is on November 2 when the streets of Hamilton will be transformed to a bygone era with classic cars making their way from the Classic Museum in Frankton to Waikato University, their drivers and passengers dressed in period costume.

Author's collection going free to good homes
From New Zealand Herald
Published 06:00 11/10/2014

Unitec Institute of Technology in Auckland and Waikato University will each receive 1500 animal-related books.

The Executive Club: CEO hones skills learned as a teacher
From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 17:54 10/10/2014

After gaining a BSSc in sociology, geography and history at the University of Waikato, he returned to teach in the newly opened Forest View school and stayed there for 12 years, aside from a year of OE with his wife Sheryl.

Study examines effectiveness of street art
From Hamilton News
Published 16:37 10/10/2014

Hamilton City Council has engaged Waikato University students to evaluate the effectiveness of the city's bus shelter art in combating graffiti. ... Council provided a brief to the University of Waikato earlier this year in a bid to partner with the university to answer council's questions about the project.

Waihi beach storm damage
From SunLive
Published 14:08 10/10/2014

That's the view of Waikato University's expert on tsunami and storm surge protection, Dr Willem de Lange.

Bringing football spirit to city
From Waikato Times
Published 11:20 08/10/2014

Marten started a bachelor of communication studies at the University of Waikato but wasn't sure where life was headed.
Al Gillispie: IS militants
From Newstalk ZB Audio and Video, Newstalk ZB
Published 20:06 08/10/2014

Waikato University Professor of law Al Gillespie talks to Larry Williams about the advancement of Islamic State militants in Iraq and Syria.

Monitoring buoy keeps electronic watch on lake health
From Rotorua Daily Post
Published 10:40 08/10/2014

Developed by the University of Waikato in collaboration with Del Monte and iQuest, it advances their current monitoring buoys which are used as far afield as China as well as in Lakes Rotorua, Rotoiti, Rotoehu, Tarawera and Okaro. ... University of Waikato technician Chris McBride said the buoys allowed more in-depth analysis. ... The session, hosted by Bay of Plenty Regional Council and the University of Waikato, will be held at 6pm at the Holiday Inn.

New academic boss for BOP Polytechnic
From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 09:25 08/10/2014

Newly appointed academic director Dr Amanda Torr has been welcomed by more than 30 guests to Bay of Plenty Polytechnic at Windermere Campus.

Solar powered buoy for Rotorua lake
From Newstalk ZB
Published 06:29 08/10/2014

The buoy's been designed by Waikato University researchers and will help monitor environmental changes in the lake.

MRI tests get human touch
From Newstalk ZB
Published 06:12 08/10/2014

The University of Waikato-led research aims to design implants such as pace makers and cochlear implants that can safely go through an MRI machine.

From Kiwi cows to GM cars
From Stuff.co.nz
Published 21:23 07/10/2014

A Bachelor of Management Studies from Waikato University, Ammann began a career in investment banking in New York when he was hired as an analyst and associate in the banking team at Credit Suisse First Boston.

From Kiwi cows to GM cars
From Manawatu Standard
Published 21:23 07/10/2014

A Bachelor of Management Studies from Waikato University, Ammann began a career in investment banking in New York when he was hired as an analyst and associate in the banking team at Credit Suisse First Boston.
Grant brings orchard robots closer
From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 18:15 07/10/2014

A team led by Mike Duke at the University of Waikato will work directly with RoboticsPlus chief executive Alistair Scarfe on the electro-mechanical components and controllers for the modular robot. ... - RoboticsPlus Ltd, based in Tauranga, will collaborate with the University of Auckland, Plant and Food Research, and the University of Waikato on a $7.5 million agricultural robot research project, with the funding spread over four years.

Buoy to be showcased
From SunLive
Published 14:06 07/10/2014

Developed by the University of Waikato in collaboration with Del Monte Ltd and iQuest (NZ) Ltd, it advances their existing monitoring buoys which are used as far afield as China and in Lakes Rotorua, Rotoiti, Rotoehu, Tarawera and Okaro. ... University of Waikato technician Chris McBride says the new buoys allow more in-depth analysis. ... The session, hosted by Bay of Plenty Regional Council and the University of Waikato will be held on Wednesday, October 8, 6pm at the Holiday Inn, Rotorua.

Kiwi in the driving seat at GM
From Taranaki Daily News
Published 13:19 07/10/2014

The 42-year-old grew up on a farm in the Waikato and after schooling in Eureka and Hamilton studied management at Waikato University, graduating in 1994 with a Bachelor of Management Studies with first class honours.

Kiwi in the driving seat at GM
From Dominion Post
Published 13:19 07/10/2014

The 42-year-old grew up on a farm in the Waikato and after schooling in Eureka and Hamilton studied management at Waikato University, graduating in 1994 with a Bachelor of Management Studies with first class honours.

State of the art monitoring buoy for Rotorua Lakes
From Bay of Plenty Regional Council
Published 12:11 07/10/2014

Developed by the University of Waikato in collaboration with Del Monte Ltd and iQuest (NZ) Ltd, it advances their existing monitoring buoys which are used as far afield as China and in Lakes Rotorua, Rotoiti, Rotoehu, Tarawera and Okaro. ... University of Waikato technician Chris McBride says the new buoys allow more in-depth analysis. ... The session, hosted by Bay of Plenty Regional Council and the University of Waikato will be held on Wednesday 8 October, 6pm at the Holiday Inn, Rotorua.

Key's power delegation praised
From Newstalk ZB
Published 10:10 07/10/2014

Alan Simpson from Waikato University says it's a brave decision, but it does makes sense.
University agreement nears

From SunLive
Published 15:07 06/10/2014

University of Waikato acting Vice Chancellor Alister Jones expects to have the agreement sealed before the festive period.

Bay athletes win Blues awards

From SunLive
Published 14:00 06/10/2014

This year, more than 60 Blues Awards were given out to the University of Waikato’s top sporting and arts students. ... The pair are both Sir Edmund Hillary Scholars, a programme providing full fee scholarships to academic high achievers who show significant leadership qualities and also excel in either sport or the creative and performing arts.

Tommy Kapai: Another shortcut leads to new risk

From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 06:00 06/10/2014

Professor Chris Battershill, University of Waikato chair of Coastal Science has stated: "Sediment samples have shown elevated levels of contaminants including copper and PAHs (polyaromatic hydrocarbons), which are known contaminants that were lost to sea from the Rena and its cargo."

Former Tauranga college students win prestigious awards

From Bay of Plenty Times
Published 11:11 06/10/2014

Former Tauranga college students Zoe Stevenson and Sam Shergold have won Wallace Corporation University of Waikato Blues Awards. ... Thirty-four University of Waikato students were recognised for their sporting achievements this year, alongside 27 students who made considerable contributions to the creative and performing arts.

Planting our way to cleaner farms

From New Zealand Herald
Published 07:00 06/10/2014

Waikato University has also launched a new agtech seed-fund dubbed AgriHub as a way to disrupt the agribusiness sector, and put effective technologies on the fast track to success.

Anti-rape app flawed concept - critics

From The Press
Published 05:00 06/10/2014

Waikato University senior lecturer in psychology Neville Robertson said the app would most likely be downloaded by men who were nervous about being accused of rape.
Anti-rape app flawed concept - critics
From Stuff.co.nz
Published 05:00 06/10/2014

Waikato University senior lecturer in psychology Neville Robertson said the app would most likely be downloaded by men who were nervous about being accused of rape.

Kiwi drives into GM's fast lane
From New Zealand Herald
Published 09:46 04/10/2014

Ammann graduated from the University of Waikato in 1994 with a bachelor of management studies with first class honour and as a teenager learned to drive in the back roads of Eureka, just outside Hamilton.

University should be stretching our minds, not pockets
From New Zealand Herald
Published 06:00 04/10/2014

For example, according to Universities New Zealand, in 2014 an education degree at Waikato University costs $5381 and at Auckland University, $5384.

NZ’s primary industries that support the bulk of the economy are least prepared for cybersecurity threats
From Computer World
Published 12:13 03/10/2014

New survey conducted by University of Waikato for Vodafone reveals more than half of local businesses experience IT security attacks at least once a year. ... Primary industries support the bulk of the New Zealand economy, says Dr Ryan Ko, senior lecturer at the University of Waikato. ... Ko, meanwhile, says the Cyber Security Lab at the University of Waikato is working on user centric tools.

Views differ on need for more uni funding
From NZ City
Published 07:36 03/10/2014

Otago University and Waikato University both dropped, while Victoria University and Canterbury University managed to maintain their rankings from 2013.

Disagreement over need for more uni funding
From Newshub
Published 06:15 03/10/2014

Otago University and Waikato University both dropped, while Victoria University and Canterbury University managed to maintain their rankings from 2013.
Three NZ universities dip in rankings
From NZ City
Published 10:26 02/10/2014

Otago University and Waikato University both dropped, while Victoria University and Canterbury University managed to maintain their rankings from 2013.

NZ universities 'still in top 3% globally'
From Hazel Dobbie, Universities New Zealand
Published 09:28 02/10/2014

This year the University of Auckland ranked 175 (down from 164 last year); the University of Otago ranked 251-275th (down from 226-250), both Victoria University of Wellington and the University of Canterbury held their ranks (at 276-300th and 301-350 respectively), while the University of Waikato dropped from 301-350 to 351-400.

Rutherford Fellows have links to city
From Otago Daily Times
Published 05:28 02/10/2014

She gained her PhD at Waikato University in 2006, with her doctoral research on resource management of flax by Maori.

Perfect timing for cyber security boost
From TechDay
Published 16:10 01/10/2014

Working together on the initiative are Unitec, Waikato University, the University of Auckland and the Cloud Security Alliance, a not-for-profit organisation that promotes the use of best practice for providing security within cloud computing. ... The project will create tools to return the control of cloud-based data to users, and is being led by Dr Ryan Ko, senior lecturer in the Faculty of Computing and Mathematical Studies at the University of Waikato.

Baillie climbs to new heights for Nepal
From Waikato Times
Published 05:06 01/10/2014

Waikato University student Kristie Baillie has come up with a unique way of raising money for the people of Nepal. ... Earlier this year the Te Aroha Athletic Club member and former Morrinsville College student was named as one of four high-achieving Waikato University students travelling to Nepal in February as recipients of Step Higher Awards. ... Still living on the family farm at Kiwitahi, near Morrinsville, Baillie has been a Hillary Scholar since she started studying at Waikato University five years ago.

Fonterra in uphill battle to add value
From Manawatu Standard
Published 21:56 30/09/2014

Waikato University agribusiness professor Jacqueline Rowarth said Fonterra was "giving stuff to other people to brand".
Fonterra in uphill battle to add value
From Taranaki Daily News
Published 21:56 30/09/2014

Waikato University agribusiness professor Jacqueline Rowarth said Fonterra was "giving stuff to other people to brand".

Dinners boost trust funds
From Waikato Times
Published 05:06 01/10/2014

That research has included collaborations with the hospital, Waikato University, Wintec, AgResearch and the Waikato clinical school.

Fonterra in uphill battle to add value
From NZ Farmer
Published 21:56 30/09/2014

Waikato University agribusiness professor Jacqueline Rowarth said Fonterra was "giving stuff to other people to brand".

Fonterra in uphill battle to add value
From Dominion Post
Published 21:56 30/09/2014

Waikato University agribusiness professor Jacqueline Rowarth said Fonterra was "giving stuff to other people to brand".